Welcome To

antpoolfrx.com

The Company was started at the end of 2015 as a antpoolfrx.com After one year of working towards increasing its assets, the Company decided to expand its activity and enter the online investment market.

In 2016 year the founders decided to make it an open-ended company to allow general public to participate in the Fund's development. The main underlying reason for such decision was the understanding that large investment amounts can be assimilated by the professional team which has developed a highly effective investment strategy.

Finance, Insurance & Real Estate

Statistics and market data on Finance, Insurance & Real Estate 'Money makes the world go round', a statement truer now than ever and, like it or not, money and the financial industry is an unavoidable part of life in the modern age. Finance is the breath of the world and - without it, life as we know it would come to a grinding halt. Finance, insurance and real estate are necessities that ensure affect our safety, security and comfort. They are aspects of our lives to which we give little thought but which would leave a gaping and immediate hole if they were to cease to exist. They form the platform on which we build our lives, provide us with the means to do so, and supply us with a safety net, if for some reason the platform should break apart beneath our feet.

NEVER FOLLOW THE CROWD

Just as no two people are alike, the investment requirements of no two people are alike. Consequently, a bespoke solution is required to ensure your portfolio fits your unique requirements perfectly.

And this is what Antpoolfrx Management understands and excels in – tailoring portfolios to fulfill the individual investment requirements of our clients.

How do we do this? As a boutique investment firm specializing in global equities of small and medium capitalization companies across all sectors, we spend the time to attain a deep understanding of your needs and then apply our decades of experience to ensure that you secure your goals.

The team at Antpoolfrx Management is comprised of lateral thinkers with the knowledge, maturity, patience, and ability to provide clients with the returns they seek within their risk profile.

We do not follow the crowd – we strive to arrive early and exit when the crowd arrives; all the while using a top down strategy before drilling down to the bottom-up opportunities.

Contact us to discover why you too should join the many satisfied clients of Antpoolfrx Management.
